Ar. Abhishek A. Kadam
(B.Arch & M. Arch in Project Management)
Associate Professor, AIKTC, SoA

Alumni of PiCA, he has worked with Astitva Designs, Samira Rathod design associates (SRDA) while being visiting faculty at PiCA and then full time faculty at LBHCOA, Bandra. He is the Principal Architect at Creative Collaborations for Design Experiences (CCDE). CCDE participated and won international competition of Mass housing organized by UN Habitat, won first place from all over India and third place in Asia and pacific level category. He also in collaboration with LBHCOA released a book on documentation of heritage building in Konkan.

His professional work and passion for bike ride takes him across India. His educational research have contributed immensely to his understanding of people, places, designs & cultures. He admires the fun & simplicity of tangents of behavior patterns. He is a passionate photographer, part of Urban sketcher's group , a blog writer (mumbaibydesign.wordpress.com), vivid reader and a music lover. You will find him at any moment, any place hooked up with music and book in his hand.