

Prof. Murtaza A Khandwawala

(B.E. Civil, MURP- Urban and Regional Planning)

Assistant Professor, AIKTC, SoA

Alumni of Anjuman-I-Islam's Saboo Siddik College of Engineering and completed his Masters after qualifying GATE examination from SPA, Vijayawada - an autonomous govt. of India institute. He is a former Junior Research Fellow for CCP-DST funded project - 'Capacity Building for Climate Change Adaptation and Mitigation' at VNIT, Nagpur. His love for research, academics and creative mindset brought him in School of Architecture of AIKTC teaching technical and environmental subjects.

His interest areas belongs to GIS, Environment, Climate Change and Landscape metrics on which he has published a research paper in UGC approved journal. Besides, he is a passionate cricketer and fun loving person who loves to play, watch and read about sport all the time. He also loves to write poems and stories.

