

Ar. Raj Mhatre

(B.Arch (Mum), MSc in Advanced Architectural Studies, University of Strathclyde, Glasgow, U,K, M. Arch in Project Management (Mum))

Associate Professor, AIKTC, SoA

Ar. Raj pursued his graduation from PiCA, Panvel in 2002 and started practising Architecture in 2004 after working for a year at a local architectural firm. His firm named Raj Mhatre & Associates is empanelled with several banks and PSU's. His another firm M Square Design Studio focuses on Architectural Projects and Project Management. After having a good experience of practice and pursuing M.Arch from University of Mumbai, Raj joined teaching as an Academician in 2013 and from then has been into teaching.

A very flamboyant personality, Raj is very famous amongst students and has a good control over them. A carefree and there's always tomorrow kind of attitude makes him acceptable in his closed circle.
